Recruiting Team Stronger Than Ever in Philadelphia Office Two new recruiters join the Arcus team to support growth in the market

HARRISBURG, Pa. (August 28, 2007) – Arcus, a nationally recognized staffing, recruiting and direct placement firm, recently announced the hiring of Brian Patterson and Kristy Reynard as technical recruiters in its Philadelphia office.

As Technical Recruiters, they are responsible for sourcing, recruiting, qualifying and placing technology professionals in positions such as help desk specialists, programmer analysts, internet/intranet developers, project managers, network administrators, database developers, senior managers and even chief information officers. Working closely with the sales team, they will work to ensure that job requirements and hiring goals are clearly met by candidates and clients alike.

“Arcus has been experiencing record growth in the last few years. Brian and Kristy will provide the extra support Arcus requires to continue to meet the demands of our clients and maintain the commitment to quality that has continued to help us grow and expand,” states R. Douglas Firestone, President and CEO of Arcus, “These professionals bring fresh ideas and new techniques to the table and we are very excited for them to join our recruiting team.”

Brian brings eight years of IT recruiting experience to Arcus, with his last six years at Yoh IT as a Technical Recruiter. Brian has excellent recruiting skills including many contemporary methods such as blog sites and LinkedIn. Brian is experienced with a wide variety of industries including financial, engineering, healthcare, insurance and media. He has successfully placed candidates in both contract and permanent positions and attended many training programs throughout the country. Brian graduated with a bachelor of arts degree from West Virginia University.

Kristy joins the team, having worked for several years at LA Weight Loss Center as a Regional Corporate Recruiter. In this position she was responsible for screening candidates over the phone, developing job descriptions, matching candidates to the correct job based on company profile and scheduling interviews. Kristy consecutively met and exceeded individual and team recruiting goals for volume of contacts made, quantity of interviews scheduled and the overall hiring percentage. Kristy earned her bachelor of science degree in Journalism and Public Relations and Advertising from Temple University.
