Arcus Hires Account Executive for Chicago Office

Kevin Goldstein joins the team to grow the market

HARRISBURG, Pa. (October 20, 2008) – Arcus, a nationally recognized staffing, recruiting and direct placement firm recently hired Kevin Goldstein as an Account Executive in its Chicago, Illinois office. Kevin will be responsible for building new relationships and providing account management services to existing clients.

Kevin joins Arcus with a stellar list of achievements under his belt. In his most recent position, he was able to generate new business and penetrate existing accounts to the degree that it landed him the President's Club award for his former company in 2007. He has managed all aspects of the search process, including strategy development, client relationship management, candidate identification, interviewing, and offer management. He has also developed strategies and executed searches for vice president/senior vice president-level positions and above.

Kevin's successful track record in sales also extended into the office security business, where he was the top Business Development Manager for new accounts at his company and had the largest single size deal sold in that same year.

"Arcus has begun to grow its client base in the Chicago/Midwest region and hiring superior talent like Kevin was important to us as we seek to build and strengthen relationships there, and as we continue to showcase our commitment to our clients for fulfilling their hiring needs as efficiently as possible," commented R. Douglas Firestone, President and CEO of Arcus.

Kevin is a graduate of the University of Delaware, where he earned his bachelor's degree in business administration and marketing.
